

Appearing this Holiday Season at The Comedy Catch

Dec. 5-6

James Gregory PG

The 2008 Exercise Can Kill You tour is his best ever! Hilarious, side-splitting, clean comedy that's appealing to everyone 18 to 80. Performing in Chattanooga for over 25 years, more than any other entertainer, James loves Chattanooga and Chattanooga loves him. That's why he's made The Comedy Catch his second home. James is heard by millions of listeners a week on radio stations nation wide and has entertained troops and audiences in foreign lands such as Italy, Spain, Greece and California.

Dec 11-14

Leanne Morgan PG

With her June Cleaver looks and plantation accent, Leanne has quickly gained popularity in the comedy world. She was a finalist at the Las Vegas Comedy Festival, was featured on ABC's "The View" in their hilarious housewives segment, appeared as a Top 5 finalist on Nick at Nite's "Funniest Mom in America" contest and was part of the "Southern Fried Chicks" tour. She's been seen most recently on The Paula Dean Show on The Food Network. Leanne exemplifies the "old south" and has been referred to as "Scarlett O'Hara of soccer moms."

Dec 18-21

Dale Jones PG

Seen on NBC's Last Comic Standing

Dale's machine gun style delivery and animated facials combined with quick improvisations and non-stop physical comedy has led to TV appearances on Fox, The Comedy Network in Canada and in the movie "Out of Time" with Denzel Washington. Dale has become a favorite here at The Comedy Catch and you don't want to miss this high energy show!
